

Census of the endangered Button Wriklewort (Rutidosia leptorrhynchoides) on the Red Hill Nature Reserve

Site	Aspect	Burnt in 2001 wildfire?	Burnt in 2005 prescribed burn?	1984	1989	1994/95	1996	1997	1998	2002	2004	2007	2011
Above Calthorpe House 0692589 6088288	ENE	Yes	No	800	1,450*	3,489*		3,500		3,000	4,210	2,243	1770(a) 2026 (b) 3796 (total)
Above Strickland Crescent 0691413 6088987	NW	No	No	640 *	1,200	1,318*		1,300		1,800	1,196	791	1,411
Morning Tea Log (Above Buxton Street) including all plants east of gully to log	NWN	No	No	25	25	30		40		50	67	60	57
Area to SE of Buxton Street 0691450 6089076	NWN	No	Yes	10	10	25		40		45	37	11	22
Above Divide of Summit + Golf Course Road (Only Known from 1999) 0691821 6088974	NW	Yes	No							50	45	30	72
By Parliament House Track (Only known from 1997)	N	Yes	No					5		5	4	2	2
East of old Sewer line	NE	Yes	No							50	150	104	150

(Only Known from 2002)
Above Big White block house Mugga Way (Only Known since 2011)	NE	Yes	No										12
Total Counted Population				1,475	1,685	4,862		4,880		5,000	5,709	3,440	5,522
Plantings in Spring 1995 (originally 2cm high seedlings grown from collected seed) planted in 3 locations above Strickland + Buxton (only one of these was fenced. Only plants in fenced site survived beyond 2008)	NW + NWN+N	No	No			1,600 (1,000 in fenced area)	700		105	50	11	14	43

@ John Briggs – nomination of habitat to Register of the National Estate

* National Recovery Plan 1995

(a) Population south of gully

(b) Population North of gully