GRIFFITH ACT 2603

Dear Dr Ratcliffe

Nomination Application to the ACT Heritage Register

Thank you for your nomination application (the application) to the ACT Heritage Register for the Red Hill historic planting, Red Hill, dated 3 May 2017.

It is expected the application will be considered by the ACT Heritage Council (the Council) at its next meeting of 1 June 2017. At this meeting, in accordance with section 29 of the Heritage Act 2004 (the Act) the Council will assess the merits of the application and decide to accept or dismiss it.

If the Council accepts the application, the Red Hill historic planting, Red Hill, will be listed as a 'nominated' place to the ACT Heritage Register and will be assessed by the Council against the heritage significance criteria established under the Act. Once a nomination is accepted by the Council, the provisions of the Act apply.

Should you have any queries with regard to the application, please contact Daisy Chaston on 6207 7379 or heritage@act.gov.au

Yours sincerely

Jennifer O'Connell
Secretary (as delegate for)
