GRIFFITH ACT 2603

Dear Mr Ratcliffe

Nomination to the ACT Heritage Register

I am writing to you as an interested person as defined under section 13 of the Heritage Act 2004, to advise that the ACT Heritage Council (the Council) is actively considering the heritage nomination for Red Hill Historic Plantings, Red Hill.

The Council is currently assessing the nomination and would like to take this opportunity to contact you to advise that a decision may be made in the coming weeks on whether or not to provisionally register the place.

The Council must first develop a clear understanding of the potential heritage values of the place before making any decision in relation to a final heritage registration.

Should the Council decide to provisionally register the place, there will be a period of public consultation where interested persons will be invited to provide comments on the provisional registration decision.

Should the Council decide not to provisionally register the place, interested parties will be advised of, and provided with reasons for the decision.

Should you require further information please contact ACT Heritage on 13 2281 or email heritage@act.gov.au

Yours sincerely

Daisy Chaston
